Fueron el primer teatro del área en abrir después de que se levantaron las restricciones de la etapa 2. Disfrutamos de las películas de retroceso por $ 5. Los asientos VIP fueron increíbles. Las sillas recidivs, espaciosas, no gastadas, adjuntas, seccionadas individualmente eran geniales. Las palomitas de maíz eran un poco aceitosas (incluso después de pedir luz), pero sabrosas y el personal era genial. La we'll buy a hamburger once. The normal price is a bit high, but understandable given the overall cost. A pl pl splurge with large film networks, but a special night is emphasized. Try it and I'm sure when the price goes; you will be sold experience Date of experience :... June 2020Sewfedup wrote a review (January 2020)Naples, Florida6 contributionsFui to see 1917 with friends. We sat in the VIP reserved seats and found them very comfortable! The seats reclined slightly and have an ottoman. Our group ranges from 5'4 to 6' 4 and everyone thought the seats were great. Soft and comfortable, but not too much, and the footrest, in my opinion, was the best! Of course, the film was perfect; The second time I see him... Guests can enjoy dinner and a drink in the lobby and dine while watching a movie. Watch VIP-tagged videos for comfortable reclining chairs. The film was great and the theater is also very good. We got a special holiday theater, which costs a little more, but it's worth it. The seats were comfortable and there was no one sitting in front of us, so the line of view is excellent.... We try to go on Tuesday when prices are cheaper, but usually we will at any time. Cinemas are clean, but during movies there are no usitors, so people who talk on the phone or are just naughty are not taken care of. Alcohol is served in the lobby bar, which can cause theatre problems. Date of experience: March 2019 Showtimes and ticketing powered by Skip to Movie and Times This theater is offering $6 for all movies on Tuesday. And the theater was full because of it. But it was so stuffy. People cough, smell B.O. starting. Gak. Cinemas are made to be cold. It was really hot. He walked out into the hallway and complained about the driver. He said he would talk to the manager. Nothing happened. I watched the movie but won't be back in the summer/fall/spring at this Florida theater unless someone gets a/c fixed, or if it's not broken, realizes it's worth paying for.
